Kendra has spent the last couple of years spiraling out of control. Finally, she hits rock bottom and heads home because it's the one place where she feels she can begin to rebuild. Her first night in town, there is an incident which brings a new man into her life. Quickly, their relationship becomes an emotional maze of truths and lies. Just when it looks as if they are finally getting on the right track, everything changes. Kendra wakes up and finds herself in what some would call a living nightmare. Literally, overnight Kendra's world changes drastically. Everything around her begins to crumble and this new man is at the center of things. She doesn't have much time to figure things out because his true intentions could not only lead to her death, but his as well. As if that isn't enough, his family ties have the propensity to destroy any relationship they've built, even if they can survive his lethal secrets.
