Two years ago, Gabe Thompson stood in the desert of Afghanistan and watched the love of his life drive away. When his tour of duty ended six months later, she wasn't waiting. Now Gabe's ready to go after the one thing his life is missing - the woman he's never been able to forget. Twenty-year-old Alexis Garcia rues the day she decided to volunteer for a UN mission to Afghanistan. The sexy, exasperating soldier she met there nearly destroyed her carefully constructed life with the boy next door. She's spent two years trying to forget Gabe, working to show her parents and her boyfriend that she knows where she belongs. But when Gabe shows up at Alexis's door, complete with tattoos, a Harley, and enough attitude to start another war, everything she's tried to conceal could be exposed, starting with her heart.
