Perhaps the only thing better than receiving a great present is giving one. And what could be more rewarding than creating the "perfect" gift with your very own hands?

Kat Goldin's delightfully inspiring book provides dozens of fabulous, modern crochet designs. Within its pages you're certain to find something just right for that someone special on that special occasion: Choose from hats, socks, mittens, sweaters, shawls, bags, throws, and so much more. You'll find patterns for women, men, babies, children, and home accessories to boot, plus ideas for birthdays, housewarmings, holidays, and other festive celebrations.

Why not make a cozy cardigan for Dad on Father's Day or an adorable pair of pompom slippers for your friend's baby shower? Congratulate a recent graduate with a chic capelet or treat your mom to a classic-but-contemporary throw, "just because." You may even find a little something to "gift" yourself!

With Goldin's help and your own personalized touch, there's no end to the gorgeous, custom "present possibilities." Projects suitable for a range of abilities—even some that can be made in an evening for those last-minute "gift emergencies"!—ensure it is as fun to make and give as it is to get...just as it should be.
