Drug Misuse and Community Pharmacy

Drug Misuse and Community Pharmacy

Drug misuse is a major challenge for health professionals in the 21st century, and community pharmacy holds a key place in the management of prescribed medication, the provision of health education and promotion messages to drug users. With more people injecting drugs and the advent of HIV, community pharmacists' services are in higher demand. The quality practice of tomorrow hinges on trained and competent practitioners. Drug Misuse and Community Pharmacy explains the historical, research and practical aspects. Experts use a practical and evidence-based approach to educate students of pharmacy, pre-registration pharmacists and community pharmacists working with drug users.
