Grace didn't expect him.

When Grace Baxton comes face-to-face with the thief who broke into her uncle's home, she isn't prepared for meeting Andrew Bradenton—not a young boy out to cause trouble and no hardened criminal, either. The judge sentences Andrew to work for the Baxton family, and being forced to see him almost daily, Grace struggles with forgiveness.

Out of guilt, Andrew offers to help Grace search for an heirloom book. When a handsome stranger shows up with the book in hand, warming Grace's heart and finding favor with her uncle, Grace is torn over her growing attraction for both men. Andrew tries to prove the stranger is up to no good, but after key documents and money go missing from her uncle's safe, Andrew is seen as the guilty party.

Will Grace discover the truth in time?
