The Wild Lawn Handbook: Alternatives to the Traditional Front Lawn Stevie Daniels

Now available for the first time in paperback, The Wild Lawn Handbook is the definitive guide to transforming the traditional grass lawn into a beautiful alternative lawn using native grasses, ferns, mosses, wildflowers, low-growing shrubs, and perennials. In the last few years, there has been a media outcry to raise the public's awareness of the toxicity and water-wasting nature of the American lawn, making wild lawns one of today's hottest gardening topics. This is the first comprehensive book to show you the way step-by-step. If you are unsure of the consequences...you'll be convinced when you see the beautiful alternatives in a portfolio of color photography in the center of the book and the fat lists of sources and support material in the back. The New York Times Stevie Daniels, the former editor of Organic Gardening magazine, has written articles on natural gardening and environmental
