Floating on Faith David Boudreaux

He was just an ordinary man following God's guidance, surrounded by a world that had fallen deep into sin. Soon this ordinary man was called to an extraordinary purpose beyond his imagination. Who is this man? None other than Noah. Come along on the remarkable journey of Noah, the man called by God to build an ark and begin civilization anew. When God told him to build an ark, he knew nothing of how to build one or even where to begin. He had no children but was told they and their wives, along with his own wife, would accompany him on the ark, along with animals that would come in pairs. Working on faith alone, Noah finds God's hand guiding him every step of the way. Not even those who come to laugh at him and the ark can shake his faith that everything will come to pass. As his family enters the ark and struggles with their faith, readers will find that they aren't so different from this family of old. Journey on the ark with Noah as he endures the storm while Floating on Faith.
