Handbook of Personality Assessment Irving B. Weiner, Roger L. Greene

Written by two of the foremost experts in the field, this comprehensive, well-balanced guide provides basic instruction in the administration, scoring, and interpretation of the most widely used multidimensional personality assessment instruments. Thoughtful chapters on the history of personality assessment, the assessment process, psychometric foundations, and ethical issues set the stage. Leading self-report inventories and performance-based measures are covered in depth including discussions of each instrument's history, administration, scoring, validity assessment, interpretation, applications, and psychometric foundations.

- Updated to reflect contemporary conceptual formulations, research findings, and practice guidelines.
- Includes new chapters on the Minnesota Personality Inventory-Restructured Form and the R-PAS (Rorschach Performance Assessment System).
- Provides extensive, in-depth coverage of the most widely used and frequently studied personality assessment instruments including MMPI-2, MMPI-Adolescent, MCMI-IV, PAI, Revised NEO Personality Inventory, Rorschach Inkblot Method, TAT, Figure Drawing, and Sentence Completion Methods.
- Online resources are downloadable, computer-generated sample reports illustrate the breadth and depth of the information that can be obtained from personality assessment instruments.
- New instructors' resource site.

Ideal for graduate students learning about personality assessment methods and issues and psychologists who want to refresh and update their familiarity with these methods and issues, or become acquainted with measures other than the ones they customarily use
