Paulo (Heróis da fé) (Portuguese Edition) Charles Swindoll

Um homem de coragem e graça. O assassino de cristãos torna-se mártir do evangelho. Terrorista convertido, autor inspirado, professor excepcional e conselheiro paciente. Esse incomparável personagem apareceu, audacioso, no palco do mundo do primeiro século marcando presença de forma indelével e grandiosa que jamais seria esquecida. Sua vida? Magnífica! Seu ministério? Impressionante. Embora considerado santo por alguns hoje, ele era "o maior de todos os pecadores", segundo sua própria definição. Ninguém mais na Bíblia, além de Cristo, exerceu maior influência no mundo de então, bem como em nosso mundo atual, do que Paulo. Era um homem de imensa coragem, resoluto e intrépido diante das dificuldades e dos perigos. Firme, persistente e incansável, Paulo desempenhou sua missão divina com decisão inabalável, e Deus usou poderosamente sua vida numa verdadeira revolução do mundo para Cristo em sua geração. Paulo: um homem de coragem e graça é o sexto volume da série "Heróis da Fé", coleção que apresenta biografias de grandes personagens bíblicos examinando-os para descobrir as qualidades que os tornaram famosos. Junte-se a nós no estudo profundo dessa vida surpreendente, como só Chuck Swindoll sabe fazer. O primeiro retrato escrito de Paulo de quem temos conhecimento não descreve uma criancinha nos braços da mãe nem um garoto judeu correndo alegremente pelas ruas estreitas de Tarso. Não é sequer a apresentação de um estudioso da lei, jovem e inteligente, aos pés do grande Gamaliel. Não. O primeiro retrato de Paulo é tanto brutal quanto sangrento. Esse jovem parece mais um terrorista de nossos dias do que um seguidor dedicado do judaísmo. Para nosso horror, o sangue de Estevão, o primeiro mártir cristão, manchou as roupas de Paulo, enquanto ele concordava com os assassinos, sendo cúmplices de um crime perverso.
