The Top Ten Urban Myths of Today's Messianic Movement J.K. McKee

For well over a decade (2000-present), the Messianic movement has been able to grow in leaps and bounds. New people are coming to a revelation of their Hebraic Roots and congregations are budding. But the theology of the Messianic community and our Biblical Studies have largely not been able to keep up with the growth. As a result, this has led to a significant number of concepts and ideas floating around that are not only non-Scriptural, but also non-factual. What are some things that have been permitted to circulate in the Messianic movement that classify as being non-factual, and at best someone's opinion? What are some of the areas where we need to progress in order to become a mature and stable move of God? What are some of the challenges before us? In a detailed yet pragmatic way, TNN Online editor J.K. McKee tackles the challenges of the "top ten" urban myths floating in our midst. He encourages a positive change on behalf of Messianic Believers so that we can all be empowered by the Lord to make a significant difference on our local communities and the world at large.
