In 2009, Victoria's CHEK-TV became the first employee-owned television station in North America after corporate owner CanWest Global threatened to shut it down. The David-and-Goliath story made national headlines and reawakened a belief in local, independent broadcasting. In the five years since the employee purchase of the station, CHEK has weathered the challenges of independent ownership and remains proudly local, in every sense of the word. While the future of media is unpredictable and the feasibility of local television continues to be challenged, CHEK Republic is, at its core, a success story, chronicling the long history, near downfall, and rebirth of a truly one-of-a-kind media outlet.

Shane Dagostino:

As a university student exactly feel bored to reading. If their teacher questioned them to go to the library as well as to make summary for some reserve, they are complained. Just tiny students that has reading's spirit or real their passion. They just do what the professor want, like asked to go to the library. They go to presently there but nothing reading significantly. Any students feel that looking at is not important, boring and also can't see colorful photographs on there. Yeah, it is to become complicated. Book is very important to suit your needs. As we know that on this period of time, many ways to get whatever we wish. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore , this CHEK Republic: A Revolution in Local Television can make you truly feel more interested to read.
