Culture and Catastrophe: German and Jewish Confrontations with National Socialism and Other Crises (German and Jewish Confrontations of National Socialism and O) Steven E Aschheim

This book revolves around the intricate interplay between culture and catastrophe. It seeks to engage the various permutations, the complexity and the unresolved dimensions of this connection, especially as it relates to the origins, disposition and aftermath of National Socialism. It examines various German and Jewish responses to Nazism and its roots, and demonstrates the ongoing relevance of that experience to contemporary culture and collective and individual self-definitions.
